About Us:

KNAPP is an Austrian company with more than 40 years of experience in developing innovative connection systems for timber construction.

Our high-quality products are trusted by carpenters, joiners, window manufacturers, and wood construction professionals worldwide

What We're Looking For:

We're seeking an independent sales representative (m/f/d) for Madrid, the Basque Country, Navarra, and Valencia— someone passionate about wood, construction, and technology who enjoys working independently and building long-term customer relationships.

Your Responsibilities

- Brand Ambassador: Represent KNAPP connectors and strengthen our brand presence in your region.
- Drive sales: Develop new business and grow existing partnerships with timber builders, joiners, and distributors.
- Build networks: Expand our influence with architects, planning offices, and industry partners.
- Advise technically: Support customers with your expertise and recommend optimal connection solutions.
- Trade Fairs & Events: Represent KNAPP at trade fairs and industry events.

Your Profile

- Experience & Passion: You are an experienced sales professional with solid technical knowledge in the timber sector – self-employed, organized, and creative.
- Technical Understanding: Knowledge in timber and/or furniture construction is essential.
- Strong Communication Skills: You are persuasive, confident in negotiations, and motivated by challenges.
- Languages: Excellent English skills, ideally with some basic knowledge of German.
- Network: You already have a customer base in the timber or furniture industry, or you are in the process of building one.

What We Offer

- International Team: A dynamic, creative team with a focus on sustainable solutions.
- Personal Development: Individual training and product workshops to support your professional growth.
- Innovation: Work with state-of-the-art products that are shaping the future of timber construction.
- Long-Term Perspective: An inspiring environment with exciting projects and sustainable growth opportunities.
